JOIN US!

LEXINGTON, KY | FEBRUARY 14-16, 2024

Innovation: A word that carries the power to transform, revolutionize and inspire. But it's not just a word—it's a promise for growth and fresh possibilities. We are thrilled to invite you to embrace innovation at the 2024 Kentucky Speech-Language-Hearing Association Convention, where we will come together to explore Innovation@Work.

The 2024 Convention will fuel your enthusiasm, enhance your skills and equip you with the latest tools and strategies to excel in your field. Our theme, Innovation@Work, embodies the evolving fields of speech-language pathology and audiology. We understand that staying current in your practice is not just a choice—it's essential.

The KSHA Convention is more than just a learning opportunity. It's a chance to connect with like-minded professionals who share your dedication and drive. As you consider joining us in Lexington, picture yourself engaging in thought-provoking discussions, exploring new techniques and renewing your passion for your profession. Your presence at the Convention is not just an investment in yourself—it's a commitment to the future of speech-language pathology and audiology in Kentucky.

Registration for the 2024 KSHA Convention is now open and we urge you to secure your spot today. Together, let's welcome innovation, celebrate progress and shape the future of our field. We eagerly anticipate seeing you at a convention experience that will leave you inspired, motivated and ready to make a difference.

Innovation awaits. See you in Lexington!

Your Chairs,

Kayla Redden and Katie McComas Maddy
